

All schedules share one frozen pipeline: scales are assigned per denoising step and per depth group; no weights change.